

Oliver Musovik: Neighbours, 1999, series of 21 ink jet prints

Oliver Musovik: Neighbours, 1999

apartment #3

The artist lives here with his mother.
My mother leaves the garbage bag in front of our entrance door for me to throw in the trash container outside when I come home.

apartment #4

Children think she is a grumpy old woman.
She doesn't allow them to play in the hallway, smoking one article of the "house order act".

apartment #2

They have a cat.
I can hear the cat meowing and scratching at the door at about 2 a.m., when it usually wants to go outside.

apartment #1

He is a housepainter.
The lower parts of the hallway walls are usually painted with an oil paint. A line of a different colour, at the height of an average person's eyes, divides the lower part of the wall from the upper.